From the Director

Since 2005, BEACON Afterschool has grown into a high quality, affordable afterschool option for families with an intentional blend of academic support and enrichment activities. Research has proven that high quality afterschool programs help children thrive. For years now, we have consistently served between 650 and 700 children every year, successfully improving grades, school attendance, and behavior, while exposing students to valuable life skills. BEACON gives children a safe place to explore new interests, meet new friends, develop new skills, and feel like a valued member of the community. BEACON has become a treasure for our small, rural community -- a program we can all be proud of.

Many, many thanks to our creative and committed staff, our community and State partners, our families, principals and school administrators, donors, and friends who support our mission and efforts. We couldn't do this work without you. Together we look forward to another year of empowering the youth of Grand County to succeed!

Warm wishes,
Edith Sage
BEACON Director

"I love the BEACON

program, I don't think students would be as successful without the program in place."
